

Government Kamla Nehru Mahila college Damoh (MP)

(Home science Department)

Introduction and history

The department started its journey in the year 1964 with BA as an effective subject of Arts and only one faculty member in the department. In 1983, Government of MP introduced the pure Home science subject in the college. Since 1987 college has Started Post graduation Course in Resource Management.

Faculty Profile - There are three faculty in home science department and they have been selected from PSC 2019.there is also a lab attendant for the maintenance of the lab of the department.

Faculty name

- 1) Dr. Aradhna shrivas – Assit. Professor and HOD home science department.

- 2) Smt. Preeti verma - Assit. Professor home science department.
- 3) Smt. Surekha badole - Assit. Professor home science department.
- 4) Smt. Pooja dubey - lab attendant (Janbhagidari samiti)

Students Profile :

In home science department , 21 students are admitted in BHsc UG, 65 students in BA UG, 1900 students in vocational subject ,and 8 students in MHSC.

Subject – the post graduation degree in the department is in Resource Management. All the necessary subjects are conducted by the department at UG level.

Teaching Mode: - Various teaching modes are used by the department to teach students such as by lecture, by black board , through online medium Zoom , Google meet, WebEx, by power presentations , open discussion method , Quiz competition , etc.

P.G. Library – home science has its own library having 80 books , which is provided to the students from time to time.

Department Instruments: - we have all necessary equipment required for Practical work such as microwave , fire extinguisher , model and chart of physiology, computer system , projector, Anthropometric tools, etc.

Department Achievement :- A national webinar and an international webinar, 01 guest lecture , tour program have been organized by the department. 20 research paper, and 1 book were published by Dr. Aradhna shrivas. Two book chapters were published by Mrs. Preeti verma and Mrs. Surekha badole.

